

Portland Cement Association

David D. Shepherd, AIA

David Shepherd is Director of Sustainable Development for the Portland Cement Association (PCA). He is responsible for the development and integration of the sustainable development message into all U.S. cement market segments, and the PCA liaison with national allied associations. He currently chairs the sustainable development committee for the North American Concrete Alliance and is on the Board of the Environmental Council of Concrete Organizations. A.

Accreditations

Licensed architect

LEED Accredited Professional

Member –

American Institute of Architects

American Concrete Institute – Member of Sustainable Development Board Advisory Council

United States Green Building Council - representative

Environmental Council of Concrete Organizations – board member

North American Concrete Alliance – Chairman of Sustainable Development Committee

About PCA

Based in Skokie, Ill., the Portland Cement Association represents cement companies in the United States and Canada. It conducts market development, engineering, research, education, and public affairs programs. More information on PCA programs is available at www.cement.org.

5420 Old Orchard Road
Skokie, Illinois 60077-1083
847.966.6200 Fax 847.966.8389

www.cement.org

